Title
Mexico's Right-to-Know Reforms: Civil Society Perspectives

Permalink
https://escholarship.org/uc/item/34w393zn

Author
Fox, Jonathan A

Publication Date
2007
Table of Contents

articles

preface
Helena Hofbauer .......................... 13

Introduction
Tania Sánchez Andrade ..................... 17

Transparency Reforms in Mexico: Theory and Practice
Jonathan Fox and Libby Haight ............... 27

I. Electoral Procedures

Transparency in the Judicial Phase of the 2006 Elections
Alfredo Orellana Moyao ...................... 62

Diversity in the Broadcast Media: A Pending Issue Made Worse During the Electoral Process
Laura Salas .................................. 72

Transparency or Cynicism? The Federal Electoral Institute’s Role in the 2006 Presidential Election Process
Hugo Almada Mireles ......................... 76

A Conflict of Interest: Accountability in the IFE
Paola Riveros .................................. 82

Transparency in Mexico’s Special Prosecutor for Electoral Crimes (Fepade)
Ana Suárez Zamudio and Libby Haight ........ 87

II. Political Institutions

Proposals for Transparency in Congress
Salvador O. Nava Gomar and Javier Miguel Ortiz Flores ...................... 94

Political Parties and the Demand for Transparency
Jacqueline Peschard .......................... 100

III. Justice and Rights

Transparency and Access to Information in the Judicial System
José Antonio Caballero ........................ 106

Police and Transparency: Beyond Access to Information
Ernesto López Portillo Vargas ................. 110
IV. Economic Policy

One Step Forward, Two Steps Back? Budget Transparency and Access to Information in Mexico

David Dávila Estefan and Jorge Romero León ........................................... 170

Legislators in the Labyrinth: Discretion and Opacity in the Policy Debate over Mexico’s Budget

Mario Di Constanzo .................................................................................. 177

The Bailout of the Banking System: Transparency Issues

Irma Erándira Sandoval ........................................................................... 180

Opacity in the Management of Public Resources:

The Case of Government Trust Funds

Rocío Moreno López ............................................................................. 186

The Lack of Transparency and Accountability Mechanisms for Mexico’s Oil Income

Mexico’s Perspectives on Transparency in the World Bank and Inter-American Development Bank

Susana Cruickshank and Flavio Lazos Garza ..................................... 190
V. Social Policy

Budget Transparency and Accountability in the Social Development Ministry’s Anti-Poverty Programs
Kristina Pirker ......................................................... 198

Transparency and Access to Information in the Oportunidades Program
Alberto Serdán Rosales ............................................... 204

The Electoral Use of Federal Funds in the 2004 Oaxacan Elections
Jonathan Fox and Libby Haight ...................................... 210

Transparency, Community Participation and Accountability in the Education System
Teresa Bracho González and Arcelia Martínez Bordon ........ 214

Access to Medical Records
José Roldán Xopa ....................................................... 220

The Problem of Maternal Mortality: Access to Information and Accountability Put to the Test
Daniela Díaz Echeverría ................................................ 225

Transparency in Mexico’s Budget for the Prevention and Treatment of HIV/AIDS
Alicia Athié .............................................................. 231

Accountability in the Allocation and Use of Public Resources by Civil Society Organizations
Mónica Tapia and Gisela Robles ...................................... 238

Public Access to Mexico’s External Evaluations of Government Programs
Jonathan Fox and Libby Haight ...................................... 247

Social Audit Mechanisms in Mexico
Felipe Hevía de la Jara .................................................. 252

VI. Environmental Policy

Access to Environmental Information
Priscila Rodríguez Bribiesca ......................................... 260

Mexico’s Pollutant Release Registry: Taking Stock, Looking Ahead
Raúl Pacheco Vega ....................................................... 270

Public Information Access and Water Issues
Jorge Fuentes Martínez .................................................. 276
VII. States and Municipalities

The Right to Know at the State Level

Perla Gómez Gallardo ............................................................ 284

The Missing Local Model

Miguel B. Treviño de Hoyos .................................................. 294

Municipal Transparency: Diverse and Changing. Some Ideas to Work With

Flavio Lazos Garza ............................................................... 304

VIII. Cross-Cutting Issues

Mexico’s Freedom of Information Law in International Perspective

John M. Ackerman .............................................................. 314

Information, Archives and Democracy

Patricia Galeana ................................................................. 320

Whistleblowers and the Rule of Law in Mexico

Ernesto Villanueva .............................................................. 324

Access to Public Interest Information Generated by Private Firms: Old Strings Attached or New Paradigms?

Miguel Pulido Jiménez .......................................................... 332

Notes on the Authors .......................................................... 337