Title
The Black Tin God

Permalink
https://escholarship.org/uc/item/4jm2s07s

Journal
Ufahamu: A Journal of African Studies, 12(2)

ISSN
0041-5715

Author
Togane, Mohamud Siad Siad

Publication Date
1983

Peer reviewed
THE BLACK TIN GOD

By

Mohamud Siad Togane

And he (the South African writer) sees and understands for the first time that, given equal opportunity, the black tin God a few thousands miles north of him would degrade and dehumanize his victim as capably as Vorster...

Wole Soyinka

It is astounding what outrages a black bully with guns can perpetrate in Africa.

He can exalt himself above God, Allah, and Juju & force a whole nation to worship him.

He can prove his baboonery and outbaboon white colonialists and castrate a whole nation by plunging it into abject servility:

he can fancy himself a Napoleon and crown himself Emperor;

he can style himself a teacher, a prophet, a savior, a revolutionary philosopher equal to Mao, Marx, and Lenin and teach the nation ad nauseam;

he can seize the attention of the whole world by personally beating up foreign journalists, like Bokassa beat up Michael Goldsmith;

he can piss on Uhuru, embrace tribalism and clanism and call them Scientific Socialism;

he can loot the land and declare himself PRESIDENT FOR LIFE:

he can appropriate any name, any land, any title, any degree, any medal—why he can even call himself like General Mobutu did:
"THE PEPPERY ALL-CONQUERING WARRIOR, THE COCK WHO LEAVES NO HEN INTACT."

And rape every chick in sight.