Federal regulations mandate researchers to describe how they are managing data to share when drafting grant proposals to NSF and NIH.

UC in 2014 moved to an open access policy for faculty publishing in journals but policy does not apply to data (yet)
Restricted data are not openly available unless public-use files are made available. Access to restricted data is typically available only with a faculty sponsor and after filing paperwork and IRB approval. UCI Libraries cannot acquire restricted data for you.

At UCI sites with restricted research data include:

- Alzheimer's Disease Research Center Involving over 100 investigators, the UCI ADRC focuses on factors that can result in Alzheimer's disease or another dementia. Has a Data Management & Statistics Component. Research data available to researchers upon approval. Researchers Guide | Data Request Form.

- Irvine Network on Interventions in Development Multi-disciplinary study: Human Capital Interventions across Childhood and Adolescence. 18 public-use and restricted use existing data sets organized as four subprojects with some available as Public use data.
Secondary Analysis

- Enabling secondary analysis of research data is the impetus behind data sharing.
- It benefits scientific inquiry because it tests if the research findings can be replicated or advanced. It is also less costly than going out and acquiring the data on your own.
- At UCI secondary analysis of data (e.g. from ICPSR) by researchers including students would typically undergo expedited IRB approval or disapproval.

*UC Irvine access only

Listed here are ICPSR studies for which UCI Libraries is providing online data analysis via SDA (Survey Documentation & Analysis). Online data analysis allows users to:

- Search for variables of interest in a dataset
- Review frequencies or summary statistics of key variables to determine what further analyses are appropriate
- Review frequencies or summary statistics for missing data
- Produce simple summary statistics for reports
- Create statistical tables and charts from raw data
- Create a subset of cases or variables from a large collection to save time and storage space when downloading to a personal computer

ICPSR Bibliography of Data-Related Literature

Find Publications

The ICPSR Bibliography of Data-related Literature is a continuously-updated database of thousands of citations of works using data held in the ICPSR archive. The works include journal articles, books, book chapters, government and agency reports, working papers, dissertations, conference papers, meeting presentations, unpublished manuscripts, magazine and newspaper articles, and audiovisual materials.

- View all citations
- Browse by author
- Browse by journal
- Browse by study

Search Tips

- Our citation search indexes only the literal citations, not the full text of the publications.
- Instead of entering a research question, use only one or two search words, and use the filters to narrow your results.
- Use quotes for phrase searches; use the minus sign to remove items from results:
  - “drug abuse” -adolescent
- A Boolean “and” is invoked with multiple search terms.
- Stemming 🦿 is automatic; do not use an asterisk.
- Search is not case-sensitive.

Submit Citations

ICPSR encourages its users to submit bibliographic citations to data we disseminate. To add a new citation to our Bibliography, please use our citation form or email us at bibliography@icpsr.umich.edu 📧.

Minimum wage in Luxembourg vs. Bulgaria

Many European countries set minimum wages for gainful employment; these vary from slightly above 100 Euro per month in Bulgaria to more than 1700 Euro per month in Luxembourg. As low as the Bulgarian minimum wage is, however, this number has increased by more than 4x (in absolute terms) since 1999 as the standard of living in the country has improved.

The Dataverse Network project develops software, protocols, and community connections for creating research data repositories that automate professional archival practices, guarantee long term preservation, and enable researchers to share, retain control of, and receive web visibility and formal academic citations for their data contributions.

Share & Find Data

The Harvard Dataverse Network is free* and open to all researchers worldwide to share, cite, reuse and archive research data.

Institutions or organizations may also choose to download the open source software for their own use. Here are some other Dataverse Networks around the world.

PSI is a global health organization dedicated to improving the health of people in the developing world by focusing on serious challenges like a lack of family planning, HIV and AIDS, barriers to maternal health, and the greatest threats to children under five, including malaria, diarrhea, pneumonia and malnutrition.

A hallmark of PSI is a commitment to the principle that health services and products are most effective when they are accompanied by robust communications and distribution efforts that help ensure wide acceptance and proper use.

PSI works in partnership with local governments, ministries of health and local organizations to create health solutions that are built to last.
