Note from the Editor

The "First Annual Languages and Literature Conference," organized by the UCLA Graduate Students' Association council of Languages and Literature, took place at UCLA on May 19, 25, 26 and 27, 1989 and included three sessions on French Literature.

Paroles Gelées offers its readers three of the eight papers as delivered at the symposium. All of the papers presented during this four-day event, including the three appearing in this issue, will be compiled and published, in their final "written" version, by the UCLA Graduate Students' Association.
Ce serait le moment de philosopher et de rechercher si, par hasard, se trouverait ici l'endroit où de telles paroles dégèlent.
